THE UKULELE ORCHESTRA OF GREAT BRITAIN

TUESDAY, APRIL 17 • 7:30 PM

From Tchaikovsky to Nirvana, The Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain is a funny, virtuosic, twanging, awesome, foot-stomping journey of rock-n-roll and melodious light entertainment featuring only the "bonsai guitar."

Formed in 1985 as a bit of fun, the Ukulele Orchestra's first gig was an instant sell-out. The ensemble has gone on to play concerts around the world, including at the Sydney Opera House, The Royal Albert Hall, and Carnegie Hall. By royal request, the orchestra proudly performed at a private 90th birthday party for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II at Windsor Castle.

i Make the experience complete by observing or participating in a FREE Master Class led by members of the Ukulele Orchestra on Wednesday, April 18, at 10 AM.
